

Features And Advantages

- Completely separate web interface from dotProject protecting dotProject data from those whom need not see it.
- Excellent for external companies and departments to create, track, and update issues in dotProject.
- TicketPortal can run on a completely different computer from dotProject for internet DMZs providing better security.
- Extremely easy to use interface for better project issue tracking with your customers.
- Electronic and bound documentation available.
- Mask internal management from ticketPortal users.

